Preface

The Administrative Report of the Excise Department for the year 2012-13 is ready for publication. The present report precisely deals with various activities of the Excise Directorate during the period, both in qualitative and quantitative terms.

The operation of Excise Directorate centres around enforcement of regulations relating to manufacture, production, possession, distribution, transport and sale of liquor and other intoxicants. This Directorate strives to achieve the dual need of prevention, manufacture, supply and distribution of illicit/counterfeit/spurious/non-duty paid liquor and achieving the full potential of revenue of the State.

During the year of reporting, special emphasis was laid on preventive activities, e-governance and re-organization of Excise Directorate. As a result of intensified preventive activities, 4745 persons were arrested for committing excise offences. The quantity of seizure of illicit liquor was 11.20 lakh litres to 36.17 lakh litres. The quantity of fermented wash seized was 94.4 lakh litres against 100.8 lakh litres in the previous year.

In the financial year 2012-13, collection of Excise Revenue was ₹2609.81 crores. This is not only 24.16% higher than the last year's collection of ₹2101.95 crores but also 95% of the revised target of revenue set for the Directorate to achieve in 2012-13.

The number of services rendered by the Excise Directorate are now rendered electronically as part of e-governance of this Directorate. Implementation of modules for issuing import permits for bulk spirit, packaged foreign liquor; industrial and medicinal spirit, manufactured drugs and label registration modules have been put in place. Collection of revenue is monitored on day-to-day basis through GRIPS. The daily reports on preventive activities are also monitored electronically.

Considering the increase in population of the State and also increase in the nature and extent of excise crimes, it was considered that the Excise Directorate be reorganized to cope up with the challenges. The Excise Administration was reorganized and the operational area of Circles and Ranges were diminished. As a result, the number of Circles, Ranges and Excise Districts increased. Steps for recruitment in vacant posts have been taken. The Excise Act was amended to make the penal provisions more stringent. A new section in the Bengal Excise Act, 1909, viz. section 46AA was introduced in the Act to increase the punishment of offences relating to adulteration of liquor and intoxicating drugs which may likely to cause disability or death to the people. Most of the offences under the Act were made non-bailable.

In order to make supply of country spirit in tandem with the demand, licenses for new country spirit bottling plants have been issued. New establishments of country spirit bottling have come up. 'In-principle-agreement' to a number of applicants has been given for setting up of distilleries in the State.

It was considered that mere preventive activities cannot wipe out the excise crimes from the society. Unless the people are aware of consequences of Excise crime, effective prevention is considered almost impossible. During the year of reporting, mass awareness generation campaign was taken up in all the districts.

Special emphasis was also laid on construction of excise buildings in different districts using the plan fund allocated for Excise Administration. Computers have been procured to equip the subordinate offices for e-governance in the coming years.

This Administrative Report could be published through collective and sincere efforts of the staff of Excise Directorate. Although care has been taken to ensure accuracy in providing statistical information, the possibility of error cannot be ruled out. Any suggestion to improve the report will be thankfully accepted for improving subsequent publications.

Excise Commissioner,
West Bengal

eGovernance Initiatives at the Excise Directorate

The eGovernance strategy of the Excise Department are directed at developing systems for the electronic delivery of its services to its licensees and other stakeholders, and for enabling the department to discharge its functions with a greater level of transparency, efficiency and responsiveness.

Some of the major eGovernance initiatives taken by the department include the following:

1. A system has been developed for the collection of excise duties and fees through internet banking channels. At present, State Bank of India is offering the service, and the system is being widely used by excise licensees. A few other banks, including private sector banks, are expected to offer the service soon.
2. As part of the eGovernance software called xPERT (Excise Programme for Effective Revenue Tracking) being developed by the National Informatics Centre, all requisitions for permits for the import of spirit for the manufacture of liquor, are now being submitted and processed online.
3. Web-enabled reporting systems for excise crime figures and revenue figures have been developed.
4. A revamped R.T.I. Act-compliant website has been launched. The website is hosted on the domain wbexcise.gov.in Continuous steps are being taken to strengthen the eGovernance capabilities of the department, with particular emphasis on broadening the range of services that are to be delivered electronically.

Awareness Campaign against illicit liquor

In West Bengal, Excise Department is driven by the motive to minimize consumption of liquor with maximum revenue earning. To implement this principle, Excise Department, along with revenue administration, also undertakes preventive activities to curb illegal distillation or manufacturing of liquor. Illicit liquor is not only harmful for the health of the consumers but also a competitive product of Government approved liquor. Thus, illicit liquor is acting as a double hawk causing immense harm to society.

In this perspective, Excise Department has come up with awareness campaign of completely newer approach. Along with poster and wall writing against illegal liquor, arrangements have also been made to transmit information coming from common people to the officers of Excise and Police Departments. In this purpose phone numbers of the key officials of these Departments are displayed in the posters.

The Department has started an awareness campaign against drinking / selling of illicitly distilled liquor by way of advertisement through All India Radio, Kolkata from 1st September, 2012. Simultaneously, effective measures for raising awareness against this menace have been taken by the district excise authorities through banners, wall writings, hoardings outside the hospitals, railway stations, market places, gramin melas etc with a view to mobilise the local people against the manufacturing and selling of illicit liquor.
